BROOMSTICK IS THE PREMIER

SON OF BEN BRUSH AND ELF HEADS AMERI-CAN STALLION LIST OF 1913.

Get of Home-Bred Horse Win $76,009 During Year, Ogden in Second Place, with Star Shoot and Peep o'Day Following.

To the home-bred horse, Broomstick, fell the premiership of the American sire list of 1913, while Star Shoot, leader in 1911 and 1912, dropped back to third place. Broomstick owes his pride of place to the fortunate circumstance that Harry Payne Whitney was moved to bring his two sons. Whisk Broom 11, and Nightstick, back to the United States from England. It was the combined earnings of these two horses that gave Broomstick the lead. Between them they won $13,975, and had they remained in England their sire would have brought up in fourth place to Ogden, Star Shoot and Peep o'Day instead of finishing first. However, as a young sire he only had 31 representatives in action, while Ogden had 38, Star Shoot 64 and Peep o'Day 47, so all around Broomstick has gained his pre-eminence fairly. Itimself a race horse of high class in his racing days, he is now a sire of the most desirable type and there is no reason in the world why he may not send others into racing like Whisk Broom II. and Meridian, to say nothing of such as Buckhorn, Leochares, Tarts, Black Broom, Nightstisk, Batnegat and others of more than useful class. Ogden made a big advance in the sire list by finishing second to Broomstick, whereas the year before he was thirteenth in the list. His good daughter, Flora Fina, had much to do with this, but Lady Panchita, Superintendent, The Usher, Cuttylannk, Triffer and many others raced lustily and successfully for the honor of their sire. Star Shoot's declension in the list may be ascribed to the fact that he had no representative of any age in the first flight of the year. One or two winners in the $10,000 or more class would have made a great difference, but Riffe Brigade with $4,012 was his best money winner. In the racing of 1912 his sons, Star Charter and Helios, won $14,555 and $12,524 respectively, the contrast being quite marked. It speaks well for Star Shoot that having no great winner to his credit he has yet been able to maintain his high standing as a successful sire so creditably. The Ayrshire hor

MILE RECORD IS REDUCED

BONNE CHANCE MAKES NEW AMERICAN MARK OF 1:37 FOR DISTANCE.

Gelding Owned by Jefferson Livingston of Cincinnati Runs Fastest Mile Ever Recorded Over Elliptical Track in Winning Handicap at Juarez.

El Paso, Tex., January 18.—In winning the overnight handleap that was carded as the fifth race at Juarez this afternoon, Jefferson Livingston's five-year-old bay gelding Bonne Chance, by Orshi—Fieur de Marie, reduced the American record for one mile to 1:37. The record which this supplanted was Centre Shot's mile in 1:37%, run at Santa Anita Park in California December 22, 1908, with 105 pounds up, and twice equalled during the present Juarez meeting, first by the four-year-old Manasseh, carrying 93 pounds, on December 12, and again by Vested Rights, a three-year-old, with 105 pounds up, on Christmas Day.

The Juarez track has been in such a phenomenally fast condition this winter that it was only a question of time when the American mile record would be reduced. Bonne Chance, which cannot be rated as anything but a useful selling plater, was purchased by Mr. Livingston from J. O. & G. H. Keene, who bred the horse, Jack Keene having purchased his dam in California.

Bonne Chance carried the light impost of 98 pounds in today's handicap, dashed to the front with the rise of the barrier and led his field for the entire distance. The fractional time was 23%, 46, 1:11%, 1:37. The winner had to be ridden out at the finish, as John Reardon, which carried the top weight of 113 pounds assigned by handicapper Jusper, was finishing with a tremendous rush in second place. Cantem, one of the other lightly weighted contestants, forced Bonne Chance all the way, only giving up the struggle in the last few strides.

The Rio Grande Selling Stakes, carrying a value of $1,200, was won by Royal Bolly, at the long odds of 15 to 1. She is owned by J. E. Dwyer, of El Paso, and was well thought of by local followers of the sport. She rushed to the front right after the start and opened up a big lead. Jockey Taplin, who rode her, took no chances, but handrode her throughout the last eighth, although her opponents had no chance to overtake her at the end. Colonel Marchnont, badly outrun in the first part, came with a whirlwind rush at t place.

Ivor Bogan, racing manager for C. W. Clark, millionaire turfman, arrived from California today to remain for the rest of the meeting.

Leford, after finishing in the second, tried to run out of a gab and unseated jockey Crawford. The boy escaped serious injury, only being stunned by the fall.

CHARLESTON MEETING ON THE BOOM.

Past Week Marked by Growing Patronage, Increasing Speculation and Keener Interest.

Charleston, S. C., January 18.—A decided increase in interest in the racing at Falmetto Park was noticeable during the past week, the attendance showing a big gain and the speculariton also running to a high figure. For the first time in many weeks, the layers had the best of it, due to the failure of a number of the favorites to run to form. On two days, six choices were beaten.

There were several additions to the ranks of the bookmakers, Henry Hanf cutting in Saturday and several more are on the ground ready to go on. The volume of money handled in the ring daily is up to the standard of any recent winter meeting and gives promise of growing larger as the meeting goes on.

The volume of money handled in the ring daily is up to the standard of any recent winter meeting and gives promise of growing larger as the meeting goes on.

The past week was the banner one of the season thus far for the two-year-olds, as it gave them their first opportunity to contest for stake money. It also demonstrated that G. W. J. Bissell, million-aire Pittsburgh manufacturer, has several good juveniles in his barn, including the Ultimus—Fly-catcher filly, Filigree, which won the Hampton Stakes. Although her win was considered lucky, due to La Patrie having run wide throughout the three and a half furlongs journey, she must be given credit for running a good race. Upon the occasion of her previous start Filigree had run wide and this cost her the race.

That R. Colston has the best two-year-old filly shown here to date in La Patrie is the concensus of opinion, and her race in the Hampton Stakes bears out this statement. When jockey Hanover got her half way straightened out in the stretch she showed a terrific burst of speed, but the distance was too short to make up the lost ground. She was running fastest of all at the end.

Secretary Nathanson's book for this week calls for the highest class racing of the meeting. To begin with, the Robert E. Lee Handicap, worth $2,000, will be run tomorrow and this will bring out an excellent field of stake horses. Incidentally, the management of Palmetto Park expects this to be the best day of the meeting, as the occasion is a legal holiday in this state and a big crowd invariably turns out here on the holidays. The South Carolina Selling Stakes will be run Saturday. It has a guaranteed cash vaue of $1,200. The former is at one mile and an eighth and the latter at one mile.

H. G. Bedwell and J. S. Ward took an active hand in the selling bidding up for the first time during the past week, while J. O. Talbott and the Beverwyck Stable, his closest rivals, won little, For the first time during the meeting, the J. L. Holland stable failed to win a single purse. The victo Francis J. Pons and G. W. J. Bissell well up in the list.

Jockey Johnny McTaggart still has a big lead over the other riders in races won, with Buxton closest to him, although not within striking distance. McTaggart's lead is expected to be cut down from now on, however, as his contract employer, Hugh Penny, has announced that in future bis mounts will be restricted to the horses owned by himself and the J. L. Holland stable.

Owners who have won $1.000 or more up to and including Saturday's races follow: H. G. Bedwell, $8,315; J. O. Talbott, $6,740; Beverwyck Stable, $6,035; J. L. Holland, $5,000; A. Weber, $3,715; R. F. Carman, $2,360; William Walker, $2,575; W. G. Yanke, $1,900; G. W. J. Bissell, $1,690; J. W. Hedrick, $1,485; L. H. Adair, $1,350; I. M. Hedrick, $1,235; G. C. Baker, $1,220; M. C. Moore, $1,210; F. J. Pons, $1,200; J. M. Zimmer, $1,175; C. T. Worthington, $1,150; F. E. Brown, $1,125; L. Marion, $1,025.

TWO-YEAR-OLD WINNERS OF 1913. Stallions Marta Santa, Dick Welles, Star Shoot and Stallions Marta Santa, Dick Welles, Star Shoot and Totals (14)	Silver Tone, Zinfandel	Russell, b. h. (1888), by Eolus—Tillie Russell. Horse and Dam 1st 2d, 3d Unp. Won.
For the first time since entering the stud, Chicago's oldtime favorite, Dick Welles, has gained a position of high prominence in the list of sires of winning two ways rolds. In 1912 he was well down	Belloc, Balzane 4 1 7 8 2.65 O'Hagan, Rubus 2 1 3 6 1.907 Mr. Sniggs, Naulahka 2 2 1 9 995 Odd Cross, Crisscross 3 3 3 1 815 Bastante, Half-a-Sovereign 2 1 1 8 574 Constant, Ethel Thomas 1 0 0 3 510 in the list with three representatives, but 1913 brought about a striking change in that he had fourteen winning two-year-olds to his credit and finished the year in a tie with Marta Santa, Star Shoot and Yankee, each of the latter three also sending fourteen two-year-old winners to the races, Sending fourteen two-year-old winners to the races, Sending fourteen two-year-old winners to the races, Searlet Oaks, Glena 3 1 2 5 1,296	Totals (6)	Horse and Dam 1st. 2d. 3d. novelty, but in the similar list of 1912 Star Shoot and Marta Santa tied with fifteen each, not one of which gained high rank as a three-year-old, although many of them raced usefully. It will be interesting to note how the fifty-six youngsters in the tie of last year fare in the racing of 1914. Of them all. prising was much the best and was right up the front rank of the best two-year-olds of 1913. Next to the four in the tie was McGee with twelve winners and he is followed by Cesarion and Solitaire II. with nine each.
